June 11, 1975

The meeting of the Conway Township Zoning Appeal Board met at Carl Ives home, 8224 Mohrle Road on June 11, 1975. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Chet Dietrich. All members present, Dietrich Cole, Voss.

An appeal was submitted by Carl Ives to permit him to build a building containing a milk house, milking parlor and holding pen. This building would extend ten feet into the right of way. This is in violation of Article X, Sect. 1 of the Zoning Code.

Permission was given because it did not create a hazard and conformed with existing buildings.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully
Submitted,

Melvin Voss
